FIFTY-FOURTH ANNUAL MEETING
OF
THE PRESBYTERIAN HOSPITAL
THE CITY OF CHICAGO

The fifty-fourth annual meeting of the hospital was held in the Chapel of the Hospital on Wednesday, January 20, 1937, at 12:15 P. M. Luncheon was served to the forty-five members and guests present.

Mr. Alfred T. Carton, President of the Hospital, presided and Fred S. Booth, Assistant Secretary, recorded. The invocation was rendered by Rev. Donaldson, Chaplain of Cook County Hospital.

The minutes of the annual meeting held January 23, 1936, were approved without reading, having been reprinted in the Hospital year book.

Upon report of the Nominating Committee and on motion duly made and seconded, it was unanimously

RESOLVED, That the Secretary be directed to cast a unanimous ballot of the members of the Society present for the election of Messrs. Charles B. Goodspeed, Fred A. Poor, Theodore A. Shaw, John P. Welling and Kingman Douglass as members of the Board of Managers in the Class of 1940, to serve for the term of four years and until election of their successors.

The ballot was duly cast, and the persons named were declared to have been elected Managers for said term.

Mr. Asa Bacon, Superintendent of the Hospital, in his report stressed the need for diagnosis service and examining rooms, if the high standard of service is to be maintained. During 1936, 11,503 patients received 109,889 days' treatment in beds, of which 2,018 were children under 14 years of age, 882 were entirely free patients, showing more forcibly than ever before the need for additional endowed beds. Ambulatory patients were given 31,879 examinations and treatments in examination rooms. The average stay of each patient in the hospital was reduced from 10 days in 1935 to 9.5 days, always a good sign. During the year just closed, the hospital maintained an average bed occupancy of 72 per cent, as against 67.5 in 1936.

Miss M. Helena McMillan, Superintendent of Nurses and Director of the School of Nursing, reported on the activities of the school for the year. Thirty-one students enrolled in the first class to enter under the new plan, which requires each applicant to have had at least two years' education beyond the high school.

With the demands on the nursing department constantly increasing, there having been an average of 117 graduate nurses on duty in the hospital throughout 1936, Miss McMillan stressed the need for a gymnasium and reading and study rooms in the Sprague home. In closing her report, the Superintendent of Nurses expressed appreciation for the assistance of the Woman's Board in the maternity work and for the important help received from instructors in Rush Medical College.

Mr. Solomon A. Smith, Treasurer, presented the report of audit for the year 1936 prepared by Messrs. Arthur Young and Company, certified public accountants. The report was received and approved and the hospital staff again complimented on the results accomplished in the face of continually increasing costs.

Mrs. Clyde E. Shorey, President, spoke briefly of the work of the Woman's Board and thanked the Board of Managers for their help and cooperation.

Mr. Carton introduced Dr. Emmet B. Bay, the newly appointed full time dean of Rush Medical College, who spoke briefly on the unity of the Hospital, the College and Central Free Dispensary.

Dr. Ernest E. Irons, former dean of Rush, commented on the negotiations with the University of Chicago which had resulted in the university's decision to continue medical teaching on the West side.

The President read his report, which is printed elsewhere in this issue.

Mr. R. Douglas Stuart was requested to prepare a resolution of affection, esteem and appreciation to Mr. Carton for his service as President and at the April meeting of the Board the following expression of appreciation read by Mr. Hamill was spread of record on the minutes of said meeting:

AN APPRECIATION

"For seven years (1930-1936) Alfred T. Carton served this hospital as President. During four of those years the country was passing through a financial depression, perhaps the worst in its history. Contributions and income from investments fell off sharply, sick people postponed hospital care with resulting loss of income from pay patients, and at the same time the widespread distress increased the demand for charity service.

"During the remaining three years, though there was some recovery, the financial problems presented to those charged with care of trust funds were scarcely less perplexing, for interest rates declined and maturing or called bonds could be replaced only by those paying much smaller returns. For us this difficulty was emphasized by the constantly increasing cost of all hospital supplies.

"Despite these adverse circumstances, during Mr. Carton's administration endowments increased by $214,000, we were able to give charity service at an average cost per year of $178,500 and, though there were small operating losses in three of the years, these were more than offset by profits in the rest of the period, with the result that under the wise leadership of our President the hospital met its responsibilities to the community and preserved its financial integrity.

"In a great hospital, when the final authority is lodged in a board of men untrained in medicine and unfamiliar with the details of hospital administration, the opportunities for misunderstanding between the board, the medical staff, the nursing force and the hospital superintendent, or between any two of these groups, are many, and not the least of Mr. Carton's accomplishments has been the maintenance of hearty good will and a spirit of cooperation among all.

"That he should have been willing these long trying years to take from his own and his clients' affairs the time, thought and energy to accomplish these results puts the hospital and all the members of the Board of Managers under deep obligation to Mr. Carton, an obligation we cheerfully and gratefully acknowledge.

"In presiding over the deliberations of this body he has been modest, but fearless, a leader but not a dictator, ever considerate of the opinions of others, and tactful in gaining composite judgments. Because he is by nature kind and generous, with that love of humanity which prompts not only relief of immediate distress, but education to diminish or prevent future pain, he has through his years of service shown deep understanding of, and warm sympathy with, the highest aims of our institution and so has given an example to follow and added to our reasons for holding him in admiration and affection.

"In grateful recognition of his devoted and efficient service and as an expression, however inadequate, of our esteem for his character, these words are ordered spread upon the minutes of this meeting."

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.

FRED S. BOOTH,
Assistant Secretary.

KINGMAN DOUGLASS,
Secretary,

REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE SOCIETY:

On March 13, 1936, the Trustees of the University of Chicago adopted a resolution expressing to the Board of Managers of the Hospital and the Faculty of the Rush Medical College the wish of the University (1) to consolidate its two medical schools; (2) to give the name "Rush" to the consolidated school; (3) to appoint a full-time administrative officer on the West Side; (4) to reduce gradually the number of its pre-clinical students; (5) to reduce gradually the number of undergraduate clinical students on the West Side; and (6) either to consolidate its medical schools on the South Side or to develop a center for advanced professional training on the West Side, and in the latter event to emphasize such work to the possible exclusion, after a period of years, of undergraduate teaching on the West Side. The resolution was presented to the Board of Managers of the Hospital by President Hutchins of the University at a meeting in April. The Board, at their meeting of May 26, authorized me to inform the University Trustees and the Rush Faculty that the Board concur in and heartily approve the first five proposals, and adhere to their decision made in 1929 to remain on the West Side and favor the development of a center for professional training there. Thus the Hospital, after many years of discussion, continues permanently on the West Side as a teaching hospital staffed by the University of Chicago according to the terms of its contract of 1882 with the Trustees of Rush Medical College. Dean Bay has taken office as the West Side administrative officer, and the Medical Staff are engaged in formulating a new program of educational work in accordance with the action of the University Trustees. Our work is becoming an ancient one. Nineteen Thirty-seven marks the 100th anniversary of the founding of Rush Medical College. The Central Free Dispensary of West Chicago, so indispensable to our teaching program, has existed for 69 years and has rendered its greatest service to the people of Chicago during the hard times of the past seven years. It is gratifying to be assured of the future of the medical center of Presbyterian, Rush and Central Free.

The neighborhood of the hospital has been improved by the demolition of the old Marquette School and Illinois Training School buildings to the West. We hope for much more in the promotion of the Medical Center Park by the committee appointed by the Mayor and headed by John Wentworth.

The report of the financial condition of your Society as at December 31, 1936, with operating statements for the year 1936, certified by Messrs. Arthur Young & Company, certified public accountants, has been submitted to you by Solomon A. Smith, your treasurer. The report shows a profit from operations for the year amounting to $10,245.42. While the size of this figure must be attributed to unusual dividends on endowment securities received during the latter part of the year as a result of the new federal tax laws, too much credit cannot be given your superintendent, Asa S. Bacon, for his care and management, as well as to the medical, nursing and administrative staffs for their cooperation in the economies of operation and replacement, and the forbearance of the administrative and nursing staffs in respect of their compensation. We owe much to Mr. Smith for guidance and counsel.

The number of days' treatment to patients in the hospital, the number of examinations in the first-floor examining rooms, and the amount expended in free work, all increased measurably during the year. Our charity and educational work, while our principal objective, require constant watching that they may not exceed our means. A good start was made in rehabilitating the hospital after the lean years by the installation of two new boilers in the power plant, a hot water heater for the laundry, a transformer vault, and numerous repairs.

$58,398.85 was added to the General Endowment Fund during the year, the principal additions being

Albert B. Dick Memorial—additional from Mrs. Thomas W. Swan and Mr. Albert B. Dick, Jr. (the final payment to complete the $50,000 fund having been received after the close of the year).....	$22,500.00
Estate of William A. Douglass.....	10,000.00
John Wentworth Room—Roxana Atwater Wentworth.....	9,000.00
Annie M. Brown—transferred at Miss Brown's death.....	9,931.25
Helen Marquis Room—Estate of Evelyn Wood.....	$ 300.00
Illinois Training School Alumnae Association.....	1,787.00
Mary Byrne Fund—J. Hazlet.....	$ 218.20
Alumnae Association, Miss Greek	842.00
	1,060.20
Child's Free Bed—Woman's Board	1,367.22

There were several additions to special funds, including $3,750 from the estate of Caroline W. Reynolds. Grateful acknowledgment is made of a gift of $5,000 from Mrs. Donald P. Abbott for the Fever Therapy Fund in memory of her husband, Dr. Abbott, whose sad and untimely death occurred March 26th; a gift of William Kidston of $5,000 for educational work; the continued support of a nurse by T. Kenneth Boyd at a cost of $1,500; $2,458.31 from the Minnie Frances Kleeman Fund for Epileptics; and several donations for the furnishing of memorial rooms which are much appreciated by patients in the Private Pavilion and increase the current revenue of the hospital.

Your attention is particularly invited to the annual report of Miss M. Helena McMillan, Director of your School of Nursing and Superintendent of Nurses in the hospital. The reputation of our nursing instruction and service is due primarily to Miss McMillan's more than thirty years of devoted service. We do well to heed the wisdom of her reports. It is a satisfaction that her optimism in the raising of the school entrance requirements to two years of college work or the equivalent, now seems by way of being justified. The comparatively small first class under the new rule will be supplemented by a spring class this year if sufficient applications are received. As Miss McMillan points out, the fall seems the normal time for entrance into the nursing school.

The Woman's Board touches so many fields of activity in the hospital that it does not seem possible to particularize. The hospital has no greater asset than the service of the many women throughout the metropolitan district who share the work of the Woman's Board.

In addition to Dr. Abbott, we were bereaved by the loss through death of the following members of the Medical Staff:

Dr. Earl McCarthy.....	April 21st
Dr. William L. Buhrman.....	June 10th
Dr. George A. Torrison.....	June 20th
Dr. Carl P. Bauer.....	September 19th
Dr. Hugh J. Polkey	November 14th

The presidency of this public institution, The Presbyterian Hospital of the City of Chicago, has been to me as signal an honor as can come to a citizen. This honor it has been my privilege to enjoy for seven years. I relinquish the office because its responsibilities tend to identify the institution with the individual in the minds of the public, and the institution is so much greater than any individual. I have felt at all times harmony with the Board of Managers, the Woman's Board, and the medical, nursing, and administrative staffs, and thank them all for confidence and support.

Respectfully submitted,
 ALFRED T. CARTON,
President.

ENDOWED NURSES

THE purpose of this Endowment is to take care of the very sick who, during critical periods of illness and especially following serious operations, need special nursing but who cannot afford to pay for such services.

These endowments are among the most valuable that we have because human lives are actually being saved by the devoted care of these nurses. More endowments of this character are badly needed. The cost of endowing a nurse is $35,000.00, the interest of which pays the salary of a nurse. The endowments so far established are:

The Helen North Nurse.
The Gladys Foster Nurse.
The Ernest A. Hamill Nurse.
The Luella Pearson Molloy Nurses (2).

Maintained Nurse.
The T. Kenneth Boyd Nurse.

THE THIRTY-FOURTH (34th) ANNUAL REPORT OF THE School of Nursing

Mr. President and Members of the Board of Managers:

During the year 1936 the School of Nursing has instituted no new policies but has endeavored to put into effect those already established. The first class under the ruling of two years' college preparation entered the end of September. It was thirty-one in number and promising in personality. The School Physician, Dr. L. C. Gatewood, reported the physical condition of the members better than that found in entering students for some years and the instructors were pleased to have a class with more even educational preparation.

Every effort is being made to provide our students with the education needed to serve the public in the many and varied opportunities open to the nurse and to allow them to secure and hold important as well as humbler positions in the nursing world. The curriculum of the school, including class room and nursing practice, is being carried through in detail as outlined in the announcement issued each year. In this undertaking we fully appreciate the continued assistance given by the Rush Medical College of the University of Chicago in providing instructors in the sciences and to the members of the Medical Staff of the Hospital for lectures delivered to our students and for helpful teaching in the departments of the Hospital. The value of this assistance cannot be estimated and is gratefully acknowledged.

However, regardless of the important contribution the medical profession makes towards the development of the nurse, nevertheless it is reasonable to suppose that in a school to teach women to be nurses the heavy burden of responsibility must rest with teachers who are themselves nurses and who are qualified by personality, preparation and experience to assume positions as instructors, supervisors, head nurses. To build up and retain such a staff of experts, requires constant effort and is seriously affected by lowered salaries or by an inadequate staff to carry through an approved program of nursing and teaching. It may be pleasant to think of our many graduates holding positions elsewhere, but it is essential that we retain or recall to us the best of these graduates.

Like other groups, nurses have made and are making standards for themselves, including the preparation of the student for graduate nurse work. The last recommended curriculum issued by the National Nurse Education Organization published in 1927 is now being revised and this school being selected as one of those to collaborate with the committee in making a study of the proposed changes, we have accordingly become conversant with future policies. While there is nothing which has not been advised many times, which a few schools have adopted, and which we have been working towards, yet to introduce the recommendations here in their entirety will require more instructors, more supervisors, more graduate general floor nurses. Not to accept and follow the recommendations will mean a certain loss of prestige for the school and for its graduates.

It is gratifying that the School Committee of the Woman's Board has taken as its special activity the maintenance of the School Library. A professional library being expensive, requiring constant additions and playing so important a part in all teaching effort, the committee is making a valuable contribution to the School.

The conditions in the Sprague Home remain the same, with the continued need for a gymnasium, more class rooms and sitting rooms. The window striping placed this Fall in the more exposed parts and work on the fire escape windows have made the corridors and those bedrooms more comfortable. The influenza starting late in November, running through December and part of January, when at times between thirty and forty of the nursing staff were off duty at one time, emphasized again the necessity of an infirmary in the Home.

There were 907 days lost from duty by graduate nurses and while thirty-seven students are on the health honor roll as not having lost one day through illness during the year, there has been a jump in students' illness from 1,429 in 1935 to 2,205 $\frac{1}{4}$ days in 1936. Of this 1,266 $\frac{1}{2}$ days were due to respiratory conditions; 281 to gastro-intestinal troubles; 108 to other types of infections; and 287 $\frac{1}{4}$ to miscellaneous causes. One student with a rheumatic infection ran up the count by a lengthy illness. On November seventh a student of the School, Josephine Wagoner, died of pneumonia after five days' illness. Miss Wagoner, born in India of Missionary parents, entered the School with her sister in September, 1935. They had completed their school and college work in this country and she was preparing for medical service. Her sister has continued in the School and she, with her Mother, Mrs. Ellen Wagoner, have contributed fifty dollars to the School Endowment Fund, as they said, "In memory of our beloved Jo, who lived a joyous and helpful life and who entered into victorious life." An itemized illness record has been made by the health nurse and, as is customary, is placed in the School files.

In the Hospital, outside of the ever increasing research work belonging to a teaching institution and more elaborated technique, both involving much time on the part of nurses, no unusual demands have been made on the nursing department.

A graduate staff for bedside nursing continues to supplement students and to retain these, the lowest salaried group, on July first their salaries were increased from fifty dollars a month with full maintenance to sixty-five dollars. The loss of some efficient members of our instructing and supervisory staff, partly due to the small salaries allowed, is regretted.

The examining rooms, Maternity, Children's Department and Operating Rooms, all requiring specialized nursing technique, the floors in the pavilion, Jones and Murdock Buildings, filled with patients expectant of excellent nursing care, combine to keep the usually understaffed nursing personnel fully occupied.

The examining rooms registered 31,879 patients, an increase of 3,019 over last year, 17,184 of which were private patients of the medical staff and 5,555 attended the prenatal clinic, an increase in that clinic over last year of 600. In addition to the above, the examining room nurses have assumed some duties generally assigned to a central supply room, in this way relieving both the Pharmacy and the operating rooms of considerable time-consuming tasks.

The Maternity on the 7th Jones has benefited by the interest the furnishing committee of the Woman's Board has taken in it, both patients and hospital personnel appreciating the bright appearance given by attractive screens, bedspreads, window shades which have resulted from that interest. The nursing staff has cared for 841 Mothers, 850 Infants, as against 794 Mothers, 804 Babes in 1935.

Through the operating rooms have passed 12,542 patients, an average of 41 daily, with a total of 1,730 major and 10,812 minor operations, showing 426 patients more than in 1935 and an increase of 574 operations.

To cover these and other nursing departments of the hospital there have been on hospital duty an average of 117 graduates and 78 advanced students, compared with 123 graduates and 63 advanced students in 1935, the distribution of which has been:

The total nursing enrollment has been 287, of which 137 are graduate nurses, 107 advanced students, and 43 in the preliminary period, against 288 in 1935, with 143 graduates, 87 advanced students, 58 in the first six months.

The Endowed Nurses have made the usual valuable contribution towards the nursing of Ward patients: The Helen North Nurse in 236 days has taken care of 197 different patients. The Ernest A. Hamill Nurse in 234 days has taken care of 180 different patients. The Gladys Foster Nurse in 276 days has taken care of 214 different patients. The Luella Pearson Molloy Nurse in 286 days has taken care of 216 different patients. The T. Kenneth Boyd Fund Nurse in 286 days has taken care of 240 different patients. The combined Gladys Foster and Molloy Funds Nurse in 222 days has taken care of 159 different patients. A total of 1,540 days for 1,206 different patients.

An average of 55 graduate nurses daily have given 19,874 days special duty to hospital patients, while in 1935 the count was 58 special duty nurses accomplishing 21,140 days nursing.

Of those students not on duty in the Presbyterian Hospital, ill or on vacation, an average of ten daily gave service and obtained experience from affiliated organizations: 39 students have given 1,400 days service to the Central Free Dispensary in one or more of its 21 clinics with a grand total of 178,838 patients for the year: 26 students have spent 357 days in the Prenatal Clinic of Rush Medical College, attending 340 Clinics: 26 students in 364 days have attended 216 clinics, made

1,232 home calls, with 208 house deliveries, in the Out-Obstetrical Department of the Rush Medical College: 17 students have spent 867 days at the Chicago Municipal Disease Hospital with scarlet fever, diphtheria and other communicable disease patients: 10 students during the year spent 559 days with the Chicago Visiting Nurse Association: 4 students were assigned to the Cook County Hospital in the Neurological and Psychiatrial Wards with a total of 366 days. In the Infant Welfare Clinic at the Central Free Dispensary, maintained by the Rush Medical College, 47 students, while receiving experience in the children's wards of the Presbyterian Hospital, spent four hours for 220 days in the Infant Welfare Clinic, to which 2,220 infants were brought by mothers or relatives.

A class of 26 was graduated on October 26th, bringing the total graduate body to December 31, 1936, up to 1,402.

Two hundred and forty-five of our graduates are known to be employed in institutional work: 207 are listed as private duty nurses: 109 in public health nursing; 31 as industrial nurses: 18 in the foreign field: 3 practicing physicians: 17 in various fields as X-ray, physiotherapy, secretarial, editorial and other specialties.

As always there are many friends to thank for their kindness to us during the year. Mrs. Ernest A. Hamill again made her generous contribution of $225.00 for the Christmas at the Sprague Home. Mr. Carton and other members of the Board of Managers, as in former years, gave eight season tickets for the Thursday Symphony Concerts, while other friends have provided additional musical opportunities. The Woman's Board has carried eight small monthly loans and one monthly ten dollar scholarship for students and contributed $100.00 for summer work at the University of Chicago to a member of our staff of instructors. Several members of the Woman's Board contributed in money and in gifts to aid with the yearly Christmas party given by the nurses at the Sprague Home to over a hundred and fifty needy children. The School of Nursing Committee, with money raised by a party the members give each year in the Sprague Home, assumes the expense of the fortnightly practice for those students interested in the School Chorus. This committee also secures the music for the annual graduating exercises; takes the responsibility of representing the School at the Central Council of Nursing Education, and co-operates with the Head of the School in every way possible.

To the School Physician, Dr. L. C. Gatewood, for the many hours given to our household, as also to Dr. Edwin Miller and other members of the Medical Staff who have helped by lectures or by professional assistance we are indebted and are most grateful, and to our graduate nurse staff for an unfailing loyal support in all our efforts we return thanks.

We wish also to thank Mr. Bacon, Mr. Hensel, Mr. Gray, Miss Brainerd, Miss Hunzicker and other members of the Hospital Staff for continued cooperation, and to place on record our appreciation for the unvaried and understanding support given by the Board of Managers.

Respectfully submitted,

M. H. McMILLAN

Superintendent of Nurses and Director, School of Nursing.

To the Board of Managers of
The Presbyterian Hospital of the City of Chicago, Chicago.

Dear Sirs :

As requested, we have examined the accounts and records of the Woman's Board of the Presbyterian Hospital for the year ended December 31, 1936, and have prepared therefrom the attached statement of cash receipts and disbursements, and transactions in securities.

We examined all canceled checks submitted in support of cash disbursements and found them correctly recorded in the books. Income from securities was duly accounted for.

We verified the cash balance at December 31, 1936, by reconciliation with the balance confirmed direct to us by the depository. Investment securities were confirmed to us by the Trustee.

Yours faithfully,

ARTHUR YOUNG & CO.
